MEMBER INFORMATION CENTER

GRCA's Member Information Center (MIC)
is an important tool for all members.

What is it?

The Member Information Center (MIC) lets you decide how you utilize your GRCA membership. Members are encouraged to update their company information in the MIC regularly to control how your business appears on GRCA's member directory and to avoid any delays in communication to your staff from GRCA.

Login On

To create an MIC account, email GRCA Administrative Coordinator Anna Lisa at ALisa@greaterreading.org.

Items to update

- Contact information
- Website URL
- Hours of operation
- Employees with titles, phone numbers & emails
- Business description
- Social media channels
- Logo

In the MIC, you can also:

- Register for events
- Post jobs/Volunteer opportunities
- Submit news releases
- View member-exclusive discounts
- Add/edit billing information
- View and print all payment transactions

Scan me to watch GRCA Membership Coordinator
Melissa Hassler walk you through how to access and update your information in your MIC.

MARKETING OPPORTUNITIES

GRCA gets its members noticed through social media, e-newsletters, print publications and more!

SOCIAL MEDIA

Social Sharing

GRCA has a significant social media presence. When you share company news, GRCA shares it across multiple channels for greater impact. Through posts and story sharing, GRCA highlights an average of 100+ members per month via social media. The more active your company is on social media, the more GRCA can share!

Member Welcome

New members can submit a brief summary of your business, a logo and website link to Membership Director Jackie Stiles at JStiles@GreaterReading.org and GRCA will post it on its social channels.

PRINT PUBLICATIONS

Commerce Quarterly Magazine

In addition to including news items in the Member Minute e-newsletter, GRCA will print many of these items in Commerce Quarterly Magazine.

Pitch a story

Interested in submitting a full-length news story for Commerce Quarterly? Contact Leah Fassnacht, Director of Communications & Marketing, at LFassnacht@GreaterReading.org and describe your topic. Stories should not be a longform advertisement for your business. The news should be timely, impactful and/or surprising to readers. The stories are placed in the magazine FREE of charge.

By the numbers

Commerce Quarterly boasts a 4,500+ circulation and a 30,000+ readership.

Women2Women Magazine

Berks Women2Women, a special program of GRCA, produces Women2Women the Magazine, a quarterly publication featuring women leaders and offering a forum to learn and share ideas. Contact Rachael Romig, Senior Director of Events & Special Programs at RRomig@GreaterReading.org.

To advertise:

To place an ad in Commerce Quarterly or Women2Women, contact Hoffman Publishing at 610-685-0914 ext. 1.

SETTING YOUR BUSINESS UP FOR SUCCESS

GRCA works to bring the necessary tools and resources to the table to help companies locate or grow their business.

Financing

Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority (PIDA) provides low-interest loans for eligible businesses and is directly administered by Greater Berks Development Fund, an affiliate of GRCA. Different industry sectors may access PIDA financing for land and building acquisition, construction and renovation costs, machinery and equipment purchases and working capital.

Pennsylvania Loan Catalyst Fund

Pennsylvania Catalyst Loan Fund features fixed interest rates below prevailing bank interest rates. Loans will typically range from $50,000 to $500,000. The revolving loan funds must be matched by private funding.

Meet Greater Reading

Meet Greater Reading (MGR) is an economic and workforce development program tying together the organization's business growth, retention, and attraction work to showcase what is next and best in Berks County, PA. Berks is a community where diversity is one of our greatest assets — in industry, in people, in housing and in cultural amenities.

Scan me to learn more about how GRCA is positioning our community or visit MeetGreaterReading.org

Zones

Greater Reading Keystone Innovation Zone (KIZ) Tax Credit Program enables young (less than 8 years) companies to grow. The KIZ Tax Credits are used to offset certain tax liabilities and to accelerate the growth of technology-based companies. The tax credit provides up to $100,000 annually to eligible companies.

Greater Reading Enterprise Zone Tax Credit is a state designation to address deteriorated, distressed, and blighted industrial and manufacturing areas. The municipalities that comprise the Enterprise Zone include Bern Township, City of Reading, Cumru Township, Exeter Township, Muhlenberg Township, and Ontelaunee Township.

Foreign Trade Zone 147 offers U.S.-based companies the ability to defer, reduce or even eliminate Customs duties on products admitted to the zone. Learn more about FTZ 147 at FTZ147.com.

CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA'S
FOREIGN-TRADE ZONE

Research and Data

Custom reports can be compiled for companies seeking information on wages across occupations, workforce availability, demographics and more.

Property Search

For companies looking for their first brick-and-mortar location or are ready to expand, we can help identify available commercial and industrial properties across Berks County. GRCA maintains an extensive list of available properties at GreaterReadingsites.com
